

FA HAI

I knew it! I sensed a miasma of demonic spirits hovering over the town. By my calculations this Lady Bai must be the White Snake spirit missing from Mount Emei. How dare she! How dare she slither down the mountain and stick her snout into the affairs of humans! Pretending to bring benefits to people by dabbling in medicine: it's nothing but her trickery. And taking a mortal husband! We'll see about that! This is Buddha's country!
