Many of you may recall the exquisite Origami Crane Chandelier that was the focal point of CATS' Art in Public Spaces exhibit at the Rood Government Center in Nevada City from January to the end of March 2024. If not, it currently cascades from the ceiling in the foyer of the Madelyn Helling Library. Many volunteers folded and strung over 2,500 cranes in 2023, under Patty Lum-Ohmann's direction, to create this beautiful art that represents peace and friendship.

You now have an opportunity to fold origami cranes and string them up to beautify your home! (See sample photo.) Patty will teach you how to fold the cranes and how to create "hanging strands" with fishing lines and sparkling beads. CATS will supply all materials.
